In between the lines
We replace somebody
How often do i find
Revolution in me
Watch the space that's left by those who're gone
The names of men
Written for only the desperate to find
Better yet again gather what we know
And start to show
Those many miles of woe, so
A mean design
This mind and body
When the two collide
Revolution in me
I'm tired of all these bad signs
And now there's no time to wait for people
To change their minds
'Cause from now on their burden is mine
Without their screaming
When they say their leaving
Now i only to remind, remind
