Wakin up in the midnight, the dream doesn't let me sleep, it's about mum
Who cries with the babe in the blood, on the hand,
That would go to school for the first time in next month (it's only vision)
It's his fate was changed in the mission
He didn't ask yet, who is he, and what is his commition,
He didn't realise yet, this world is ttransition It's shooted out thousands of bullets and projectiles in a Palestine
It'd doesn't make a sense, what the fuck the talkin out Get the Godnes in a saver brother, everytime, when you're getting out,
Just for the bread, or watercup
