Infinity stretches unlimitlessly countless days pass by immeasurably Anniversaries gutter in the maelstrom whorling a snowstorm of lustrous millennium We couldn't stay together this couldn't last forever Senses dissolve into soliloquies flooding ascent in synchronicity
But we couldn't stay together
I knew this wouldn't last forever

Forever just one more tie then never this is the last string to sever
On and on yes it goes on and on I could stay wherever I would last forever Forever just one more tie then never
this is the last string to sever
forever never forever
This is the last string to sever
I have lost you for ever and ever
