This is the happy house, we're happy here in the happy house

Oh, it's such fun, fun, fun

We've come to play in the happy house

And waste a day in the happy house, it never rains, never rains

We've come to scream in the happy house

We're in a dream in the happy house

We're all quite sane, sane, sane

This is the happy house-we're happy here

There's room for you if you say "I do"

But don't say no or you'll have to go

We've done no wrong with our blinkers on

It's safe and calm if you sing along, sing along, sing along

This is the happy house, we're happy here in the happy house

To forget ourselves and pretend all's well

There is no hell

I'm looking through your window

I'm looking through your window
