He said he saw his best friend and me
Were happy as can be
I said we thought an esquire, you see
He sit here next to me
I told him all that happened and I'm glad it's over
He held my hand,
I smiled and he smiled back, too
What will I do
He said

Come and stay all night
Forget what you told me
We'll leave it behind
Come and stay all night
Your past is gone, your present may best
That you'll see in time
We'll work out the rest

He tells me all that he would do
To ease what I've been through
I stayed at some nights thinking about you
I'm sure this surprises you
He said, "things will be bright from now on Let's try, I promise"
He held my hand
I smiled and he smiled back, too
What will I do
He said

Come and stay all night
Forget what you told me
We'll leave it behind
Come and stay all night
Your past is gone, your present may best
That you'll see in time
We'll work out the rest

Come and stay all night
Forget what you told me

We'll leave it behind
Come and stay all night
Your past is gone, your present may best
That you'll see in time
We'll work out the rest
