(Karen Elliot)

how can you mend a broken heart when you try to pick up the pieces it keeps tearing you apart when you look through the yellow pages or call on the hot line I think you'll find that information there just like a leaking faucet your heart's been wasting away (many hearts wasting away) before the feeling gets bad, why don't you put it into one ad
'cause I'm your heart repair man I'll fix you up when you're feeling down your heart repair man to do the job and be true you know what I'll have to do so many times you've been treated wrong you don't have to take this anymore it's like a sad, sad song
when you look through the yellow pages or call me on the hot line girl, I'll have your information here when you've been hurt so bad can't trust anyone, that's so easy to say (so easy to say) but for a woman like you oh, this heart I'll fix today [chorus]
girl, I know when you're feeling down that's why I will always be around you, baby ooh, just for you there's no job I wouldn't do satisfaction guaranteed girl, just bring your heart to me, oh (hey can you fix me up) I'll fix you up
(I'm so brokenhearted)
(hey can you fix me up) I'll fix you up
(I'm so brokenhearted)
(hey can you fix me up) I'll fix you up (I'm so brokenhearted) never let you go you turn me on, ooh, I need you so (hey can you fix me up) you don't need no layaway girl, I'll fix your heart today satisfaction guaranteed girl, it's you that I need (hey can you fix me up)

(I'm so brokenhearted)
(hey can you fix me up)
(I'm so brokenhearted)
(hey can you fix me up)
(I'm so brokenhearted)
[interlude]
(hey can you fix me up)
(I'm so brokenhearted)
(hey can you fix me up)
(I'm so brokenhearted)
ooh ooh ooh (hey can you fix me up) (I'm so brokenhearted) ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
