(Kenneth St. Lewis, Freddie Perren)

Who would like to take a chance
at the roulette wheel of love?
I would like to bet on my heart and soul.
Are you ready?
Yes, I'm ready.

Round and round it goes
Where it's gonna stop?
Nobody knows

Whoa oh oh, the roulette wheel of love
The roulette wheel of love
Whoa oh, it's a game of chance at love
The roulette wheel of love

He says all the things
I want to believe
Yet I wonder what he's got up his sleeve
If I bet all his love,
My heart is at stake
But there's no limit to the gamble I've take

At the roulette wheel of love
Taking my chances
At the roulette wheel of love
Whoa oh, it's a game of chance at love
Chance at love
At the roulette wheel of love

Just a spin of the wheel
A toss of a coin (toss of a coin)
Will it be laughter or tears from now on?
Desperately I'm playing the odds
That 10 to 1, he won't break my heart

At the roulette wheel of love
Here I stand
At the roulette wheel of love
Whoa oh, it's a game of chance at love

Lady Luck be with me
At the roulette wheel of love

Ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah

Round and round it goes
Where it's gonna stop?
Nobody knows

Whoa oh oh, the roulette wheel of love
(the roulette wheel of love)
Taking my chances
At the roulette wheel of love
Whoa oh, it's a game of chance at love
(a game of chance at love)
Lady Luck be with me
At the roulette wheel of love
(spinning around, spinning around)
Whoa oh oh, the roulette wheel of love
Here I stand
At the roulette wheel of love
(with my heart in my hand)
Whoa oh, it's a game of chance at love
At the roulette wheel of love
