You know I'm on a trail, and I'll never fail
But the spiders are watching me
Pulling me into their webs and stretching
So awful the demands, too many music fans
We all want to be free and have some time to breathe

A place to live and to believe
And all that I want is a time to breathe
From all the way down to the symphony
All that I want is a time to breathe

Look at me, you never thought I would change
Or go out of range
Just looking for something new for me
Like a fire that's burned all of it's fuel
No more losing for me or just being the tool that you rule
No more lies; no more cries of distress
Simply looking for the rest while only doing my best

The book is done-now it's time to relax
Throw it all back while I listen to some cr**
And take a nap and find

A place to live and to believe
And all that I want is a time to breathe
From all the way down to the symphony
All that I want is a time to breathe

It's in my find and I'll never forget
All the times that I've wanted to stop
And it all now just for a while
Let me go back in style so I'll always be trying to see
All the facts and possibilities that give me all this potential
Let me see and look back at my life 'cause it's moving so fast
What I really need is

A place to live and to believe
And all that I want is a time to breathe

From all the way down to the symphony
All that I want is a time to breathe
