"Cries Of Humanity"

Lying shells on a beach transparent
Listening clearly to sounds of the sea
And this show is a fabrication
Of a forgotten melody

I hear the cries of humanity
Piercing the waves that we all can see
Hope is in finding the reasoning
To which I feel the creations live

Forget the stormy shallows
Follow me to a place that is true
Tell them all what I've heard inside me
Nothing more than a lingering song
Lying shells will have understanding
And the waters will clear them away
Hear the reason inside you calling
Hear the sound of the sea in your mind

I hear the cries of humanity
Piercing the waves that we all can see
Hope is in finding the reasoning
To which I feel the creations live

I hear the cries of humanity
Piercing the waves that we all can see
Hope is in finding the reasoning
To which I feel the creations live
