"Obvious"

I told you not to mess with me
I?m not like any other girl
But now it?s obvious you never Heard a word I said
Knew that I was stupid thinking
I could make it better for me
Trusting you with every detail
Of my life

Then I saw your eyes...
Can?t stand your lies anymore
You betrayed my trust
Now, there?s no goodbye?s or no tomorrow...

This can?t be right
It?s just not me
I used to think that
I was strong enough
To carry on...

You know that every time we meet
It?s hard for me to turn the other way
Or even stop to say the things I need
To tell you

Time and time again you pull me back
Into your arms but never Once give me a chance to see
What?s really going on...

I saw your eyes...
Now there?s no goodbye?s or no tomorrow...

This can?t be right
It?s just not me
I used to think that
I was strong enough
To carry on...

So, here is were it went wrong
I stopped being myself for you

I tried so hard to move on
I stopped being myself for you
- Thought you?d be there!

This can?t be right
It?s just not me
I used to think that
I was strong enough
To carry on
