VERSE 1:

Reality is so cold,
Dealing with this world is getting old,
Though it's true this feeling's nothing new,
Will this system ever change?
Then warm from you relieved me,
Another heart to complete me,
Through this storm girl you've remained true,
No wonder I'm in love with you... oh

CHORUS:

You are my rose in winter,
My fire when the cold is so bitter,
Ohh whoaohwhoa
You are my rose in winter,
May my love and heart forever be with you...

VERSE 2:

Adversity's been building,
Like an avalanche coming to get me,
It's hard enough trying, to survive this society,
Something so rare as honesty,
You manage to provide for me,
Almost seems like fantasy,
A woman so in love with me... ohhohh

[CHORUS]

Closing Adlib: To my one Trish... I know it's been a rough month. Heck, it's been a rough year... You know. I can't stress how thankful I am to have you in my life. You're lovely and wonderful to me. This world's a blizzard, and thank you for being that warmth guarding me. I know you and I will hold each other tight through this bitter winter. I love you sweetheart. Thank you for being there for me and I will continue being there for you, as long as you continue being there for me. I love you. Your love... SynClair
