Ain't talking dirty like you know you want me to
You drive me crazy like you know you always do
How could something so right, turn around and be so wrong?
I can't say no...

Oh, oh
Here we go again
Oh, oh
Gone off the deep end
Just when I thought I

Thought I had let go of you
Oh, oh
Here we go again

You thought you kicked it
But you haven't had enough of me
You tried to shake it
But it wasn't that easy
How could something so good
Turn around and be so bad?
You can't say no...
