I remember when you loved me once before
It feels like you were seeking through my pores
And even though I try to swim against the tide,
Your love is pulling down on me.
Fall until you have me I was yours
I could not predict this under storms,
And even though you try, to flood me with your lies
Your love is suffocating me.

Tryin' to breathe I'm drowning, feel my heart
pounding
Flow until the surface looks on you
And now my mind is crowded soak into the grounding,
I wanna meet my body waterproof.

Don't let your love sink, won't let your sink x 4

Did you ever think I was into deep
With all this rain coming down on me,
Under your spell I can never speak
Bring me to the shore and set me free.

Tryin' to breathe I'm drowning, feel my heart
pounding
Flow until the surface looks on you
And now my mind is crowded soak into the grounding,
I wanna meet my body waterproof
I wanna meet my body waterproof
I wanna meet my body waterproof
I wanna meet my body waterproof

Waterproof, waterproof, waterproof, waterproof

I wanna meet my body waterproof,
I wanna meet my body waterproof
