If I could remember
Your touch
Against my skin
If I could remember
Your face
That begins to fade

I can only remember the nights
That never end
I can only remember your love
I'll feel again

Tonight
Something's taking over me
My body's in control
Tonight
I feel you closer than ever before

Tonight
Losing the words to say
Tonight
There's no way you're getting away

Tonight
Something's taking over me
My body's in control
Tonight
I feel you closer than ever before

Let me go
I cannot erase you
Through it all
I'm drifting closer to you
Tonight

If I could remember
Your touch
Against my skin
If I could remember
Your face
That begins to fade

I can only remember the nights
That never end
I can only remember your love
I'll feel again

Something's taking over me
I feel you closer than ever before

Tonight
Losing the words to say
Tonight
There's no way you're getting away

Tonight
Something's taking over me
My body's in control
Tonight
I feel you closer than ever before

Let me go
I cannot erase you
Through it all
I'm drifting closer to you
Tonight
