

Clarks, The "All That Much"

Visit "All That Much" on MotoLyrics.com

On a cold, rainy night in a town where nothing is new
I'm walking alone and I'm thinking of you
All I want is a friend and a smile and a bar with a view
And I really don't think it's all that much to ask of you
I really don't think it's all that much to ask of you

Now I don't only want just one night I'm looking for more
A walk in the park when we talk when we lie on the floor
A feeling that I don't have to impress anymore
Is that such a hard thing to find, such a hard thing to score?
And I really don't think it's all that much to ask
I really don't think it's all that much to ask of you

On a cold, rainy night in a town where nothing is new
I'm walking alone and I'm thinking of you
All I want is a friend and a smile and a bar with a view
And I really don't think it's all that much to ask of you
I really don't think it's all that much to ask
I really don't think it's all that much to ask of you

Visit Clarks, The page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.