Stay away from me because
I might just lose my cool
It happens every time you know
And makes me feel the fool
There are times when I don't know who I am
When I don't think I ever will or can

You and I it always seems that we can't get it right
It happens every time you know It ends up in a fight
There are times when I don't know who I am
When I don't think I ever will or can
'Cause
I'm already down
Already down

Stay away from me because
I might just lose my cool
It happens every time you know
And makes me feel the fool
There are times when I don't know who I am
When I don't think I ever will or can
'Cause
I'm already down
Already down
