"Cry"

You said you were gonna spend some time with me
You said you were gonna have to put me in my place
You said you were gonna have to wait and see, but it won't

Make me break down and lie
Make me break down and lie
Say I love you, no don't even try
Make me break down and cry

You said you were gonna have some fun with me
You said you were gonna have to put me on a shelf
You said you were gonna have to harden me, but it won't

You said you were thinking you could marry me
You said you were thinking you could leave without a trace
You said you were thinking way too much, so please say you won't

Make me break down and lie
Make me break down and lie
Say I love you, no don't even try
Make me break down wondering why
Make me break down and cry
