I've got the moon over my shoulder, I'm not looking back
I've got the world in my headlights, and it just feels right
This stream of consciousness, no surprise
I can see when I close my eyes, tonight

I've got a Civic on my right and he starts talking smack
One thing I can't ignore is a punk like that He's the devil I know or the devil I don't Welcome to my dust and stones, goodbye

Hell on Wheels, free at last
When the road is your world, there's nothing like going fast
Hell on Wheels, free at last
What's left behind leaves one less thing to pass

There's a yearning and desire still burning in the back of my mind
I won't kiss away the best days of my life

Hell on Wheels, free at last
When the radio fades, you'll know life's moving fast Hell of Wheels, free at last

I've got the moon over my shoulder, I'm not looking
back
I've got the world in my headlights and it just feels
right
There's a breeze that blows in through my hair
The colors in the desert air Nothing in the world compares, tonight

Hell on Wheels, free at last
WHen the road is your world, there's nothing like going
Hell on Wheels, free at last
When you're making the rules, there's no way to finish last
