It will find you in the park, it will meet you after dark,
It will remind you that nothing's the same.
It will take you by surprise, it will be this young girl's
eyes,
It will remind you that she's gonna stay.
It will wake you in the morning, get yourself right out
of...
There's this little sanctuary from these voices in my head...in my head...

It will stab you in the back, change your world, fade it to black,
It will remind you that nothing's the same.
It will take you by surprise, it will leave you paralyzed,
It will remind you that he's gonna stay.
It will wake you in the morning, get yourself right out
of...
There's this little sanctuary from these voices in my
head...in my head...

And I don't know what to do, all I want is to be with you...
And I sit by candlelight, wishing you were here
tonight...

It will shoot you in the head, it will make your life bleed
of lead,
It will remind you that nothing's the same.
It will take you by surprise, it will be this young girl's
eyes,
It will remind you that nothing's the same.
It will wake you up in the morning, get yourself right out of...
There's this little sanctuary from these voices in my
head...in my head...

And I don't know what to do, all I want is to be with
you...
And I sit by candlelight, wishing you were here
tonight...

And I don't know what to do, all I want is to be with you...
And I sit by candlelight, wishing you were here
tonight...
Wishing you were here tonight,
Wishing you were here tonight...
