There's a train of love comin' round the corner
There's a train of love crossing the border
There's a train of love comin' round the corner
Gonna jump on gonna jump on at the border
Train of love is comin' round the corner

I got the fear of god and some money tucked away in my shoe
I got a little green bud in a locket with a picture of you I got permission from your dad and a kiss from your mother
They send you their love they want to send you your brother
Train of love is comin' round the corner

The engineer is crazy and the train is travellin' so fast You've got to jump on the future with little regard for the past
Johnny walked the line and i'm gonna follow
Get her home tonight she might not see tomorrow
Train of love is comin' round the corner

Grab your levi's and bring your cowboy boots Quit your job say goodbye tell your friends you're leaving tonight
On the train of love
Train of love
Train of love

If you're feeling kind of crazy we could take this train through the woods
We'll get married in the forest honeymoon in my neighborhood
The twins are on the way hannah and samantha We'll buy a big house and live happy ever after Train of love is comin' round to take me to you

Grab your levi's and bring your cowboy boots
Quit your job say goodbye tell your friends you're
leaving tonight
On the train of love

Train of love
Train of love
Train of love
Train of love

[solo]

Train of love
Train of love
Train of love
Train of love
Train of love is comin' round the corner
Train of love is comin' round the corner
Train of love is comin' round the corner
Train of love
