Now baby I've been thinking lately beauty into pictures shit pictures I've
Been painting
Thought you a cutie baby your beauty is amazing
I wanna say something to you but don't wanna be basic Thinkin should say I or should I let it go
Can make it through the eye but we've been here before
Girl Do we even try baby I should let you know where I from
No other brother come up I'd probly could'ntlet you go Now shorty know we young but why are we being patient
Time is of the virtue why is it being wasted
Wanna be your man I'm trying to be in the placement
Talking bout the man who trying to be irreplacement listen
I lay something and tell you I ain't fronting
Say it to my face when you tell me you ain't running
And if you straight clean and baby the paint coming all
I needing for you
To do is say something... please

[Chorus:]

Why don't you say hello say hello
I see you starring don't cha say hello say hello
Say hello.
I say to sing because your beautiful say hello
Your eyes your hair your lips your scent your smile
Makes me Wanna say hello.
Your eyes your hair your lips your scent your smile
Makes me wanna say hello.

Now patiently hurry we getting hasty
Got me feeling faded from every time that you face me Got me in the moves cause baby that's where you take me
Right up in the brain just place me incase we Feeling like the race we running is untastely
Feeling like the change is coming is come vaguely Feel my heart race like the F-one blazing

Nigga you the girl not a next one baby
Now we can keep it cool or we can sit and laugh
But don't waste me and you awful issues of the past
I'm itching to sit in a position to be your man
You got me afflicted I'm really feeling it's a plan
Listen I'm feeling you but the message is getting low
Shorty is it true just expressions of letting go
Cause all I wanna do is tell you I let you know
'Cause all I wanna do is to tell you I let you know
And all I got to say is

[Chorus:]

Why don't you say hello say hello
I see you starring say hello say hello
Say hello.
I say to sing because you will fall say hello
Your eyes your hair your lips your... your smile
Wanna say hello.
Your eyes your hair your lips your... your smile
Makes me wanna say hello.

Take a... take a risk you may find you falling in love
... to escape from the '
So say say something to me
So say say something to me
Say say something to me
Say say something to me
Say say something to me
Say say something to me.

[Chorus:]

Why don't you say hello say hello
I see you starring don't cha say hello say hello
Say hello.
I say to sing because your beautiful say hello
Your eyes your hair your lips your scent your smile
Makes me Wanna say hello.
Your eyes your hair your lips your scent your smile
Makes me wanna say hello.
