Well, I kick you out this door and
You're in rave every morning
Come home late and find you waiting there
Well, you pack your case, you leave my place
You make your reseervations on a plane
'Cause you're a boom-boom-boomerang
Baby, coming back to me
Well, I tell you that I see you soon
I won't come back, you're free this noon
Break your heart and ask you how it feels
Well you spend and lose all of your loot
Come on boomsy, feeling like a fool
'Cause you're a boom-boom-boomerang
Baby, coming back to me
Come on back to me girl!
