The memory, forgot the good times say hello, caus i can't believe i'm here i carry you around like a pop song in my head never ask why, if it's a miracle say goodbye, for the first time in my life cause there is nothing i want more than to get you back pretend i'm okay
it kills to see you walk away
you know you'll live in my memory cross my name, off of your list it's not alright, to pretend that i'm okay to say goodbye to you, when i've built my life around you
pretend i'm okay
it kills to see you walk away
you'll live in my memory, bye bye cause i'm okay if you're okay
pretend i'm okay
pretend i'm okay
in my memory
