

Classic Crime, The "The End"

Visit "The End" on MotoLyrics.com

Call me a liar,
Call me your friend.
I will let you down, again.

Cause I'm a disaster,
Of epic proportions.
I will let you down, again.

I am not worthy to be called your savior,
I am not going to catch all your blame;
But to warn you,
Some may fall on my name.

How could you do this to all your believers?
How could you do this to all of your friends?

You know this is the end.
I know this is the end,
I know this is the end.
