"Helpless"

Lie on the deck of this open yacht
Watch the sky the Caribbean Sea is so hot
Feeling the wind; I can smell the sea
And I hear how the ocean is calling to me

I never knew all the world had to show
I never let anyone know me cause you know
I was the girl with the strongest defenses
Safe inside my world of pretenses

Smile and youve taken me by surprise
For a while Im content just to look in your eyes

But when you touch me it feels just like magic Makes my years alone almost tragic oh baby
I was alone but I never felt lonely
My heart was reserved for you only

Helpless
When you touch me Im powerless
I need you so much baby Im helpless
