I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I acted wrong again
Although we had promised to make it right back then
Forgive me, so careless, I thought you'd understand
Take me back to when I held you in my own hands
Love is always aching
Love is giving more than taking
Love is everything to me
From this day through I promise to love you differently
I'm sorry, so sorry to see you hurt like this
I want to restore you, it is my only wish
I take back the words that have pained your wounded heart
It's all my fault, I know better, I'm sorry
Love is always aching
Love is giving more than taking
Love is everything to me
Give me faith in our love again, love me differently
Tell me that you will be mine for all of time (love you forever)
I won't leave you (leave me)
I can't leave you (leave me)
So I love you, you're my soul
Love is always aching (the truth is I will always love you)
Love is giving more than taking (the pain is worth it to me)
You're my love, you're everything to me
From this day through I promise to love you differently
Give me faith in our love again, love me differently
