Could you be down for the unity alright
Down for the struggle
Love is, love is everything
But it's harder to be good

Some will seek the darkness to be brave
Seek and you shall find it
Some will sit and wait to be saved
Take it when you should

If the walls come tumblin' down
Crashing down, tumblin' down
All at once will you come around
Crashing down, it's tumblin' down

Could you be down for divinity alright
Down for my brother
All is all is everything
But it's harder to be good

Some will live for honesty
The change is ever coming
The light and dark in everything
I know it's harder to be good

If the walls come tumblin' down
Crashing down, tumblin' down
All at once will you come around
Crashing down, it's tumblin' down

I know it's harder to be good
I know it's harder to be good
I know it's harder to be good
I know it's harder to be good

If the walls come tumblin' down
Crashing down, tumblin' down
All at once will you come around
Crashing down, it's tumblin' down

If the walls come tumblin' down
Crashing down, it's tumblin' down

All at once will you come around
Crashing down, it's tumblin' down

I know it's harder to be good
