Sun is shinin'
And the waters much to low
Fire across America
Where the hell you think we'll go

A drop of rain is good for everything
But the needle's in your vein
You want it easy
You just take it, take it

She's burnin', mother heaven
Our homeland burnin' under the sun
She's burnin', mother heaven
Our homeland burnin' under the sun

Someday you'll be kickin' it
But it'll be all right till then
You fuck it up till you get enough
Thinkin' time will be your friend

Everyday is just another day
But the needle's in your vein
Take what you don't need
You just waste it, waste it

She's burnin', mother heaven
Our homeland burnin' under the sun
She's burnin', mother heaven
Our homeland burnin' under the sun

And the time will come
Your children will say you lied
Rivers dry it don't run
You cannot deny

As it is within
It will be outside
And the time will come
And the time will come

She's burnin', mother heaven
Our homeland burnin' under the sun

She's burnin', mother heaven
Our homeland burnin' under the sun

She's burnin', mother heaven
Our homeland burnin' under the sun
She's burnin', mother heaven
Our homeland burnin' under the sun
