Da heya da da da heya
Da da da heya Internet love...

You, you will always on my mind
In my dreams a thousand times
Will I spend my entire life with you?
Me, you were always wanting me
Making moves, it's destiny
Call me on the Web tonight, call me

You, know where I am
Guess you've always been my man
Is the future me and you?
And yet...

Do you believe in love?
Do you believe in internet love?
Do you believe in love?
You will remind, oh baby
Do you believe in love?
Do you believe in internet love?
Do you believe in love?
You, always mine oh baby

Da heya da da da heya
Da da da heya Internet love...

You said you really understand
All the problems that I've had
Almost like you know me from inside
Me, loved your sensibility
And what you looked like didn't mind
But your beauty still a nice surprise

You, (you know it babe)
You know where I am
Guess you've always been my man
Is the future me and you?
Tell me yeah...

Da heya da da da heya

Da da da heya Internet love...

You know it's amazing what can happen to you
When you give your mind no limits
And you let the power of love go beyond the universe
Through satellites floating through galaxies
Connecting our feeling to the world
And who knows who's out there waiting for you
Who knows if out there there's true love
Someone who really cares
Someone that was born to fulfill your fantasies
So make that internet love call...
