"Confide In Me"

I stand in the distance

I view

From afar

Should I offer some assistance?

Should it matter who you are?

We all get burnt by love

We've all got a cross to bare

In the name of understanding

A problem should be shared

Confide in me

Confide in me

I can keep a secret

And throw away the key

But sometimes to release it

Is to set our children free

We all get hurt by love

We've all got a cross to bare

But in the name of understanding now

A problem should be shared

Confide in me

Confide in me

Stick or twist

The choice is yours

Hit or miss

What's mine is yours

(Repeat)

We all get hurt by love

We've all got a cross to bare

But in the name of understanding love

A problem should be shared

Confide in me

Confide in me

Confide in me

Confide in me!
