Downtown
"2004 Stephen O'Reilly

Please darling, you're so pretty
And the evening has only begun
It seems darling, the City's beckoning
And the Wholesome drove off with the sun
And you know I'm only teasing
You're forever pleasing
I'm just controlling you strolling along,
But I promise what you live through tonight
Will only come true if
The City keeps playing this song

How else could it be?
Twenty million caged
Looking to be free

We're going Downtown
Where the Sun never shines,
But naughty Moons rise for sure.
We're going Downtown
Where the air is so thin,
The City's pressed in some more.

Please darling, stop hiding
The Moon's got our backs for a while
Seems darling, you devil,
Seduction begins with a smile

How else could it be?
Twenty million caged
Looking to be free

We're going Downtown
Where the Sun never shines,
But naughty Moons rise for sure
We're going Downtown
Where the air is so thin,
The City's pressed in some more.

Are there really no words you're speaking?
Your eyes have a mind of their own
Darling, kiss me. Oh, kiss me hard.
Let me feel like I'm not alone, not alone

We're going Downtown
Where the Sun never shines,
But naughty Moons rise for sure
We're going Downtown
Where the air is so thin,
The City's pressed in some more, for sure.
