Your pychic little princess had a dream about me the other day

She said that i was laughin because you were dead

What a witch i am What a witch i am What a witch i am

What a witch i am

You crush me to little pieces When you roled over and said That you didn't trust me and you never did

When did i lie? When did i lie? When did i lie? When did i lie?

Who's side are you on anyway? Who's side are you on anyway? Who's side are you on anyway? Who's side are you on anyway?

I bet she left ya thinkin that you might come back again I bet she left ya thinkin that you were right all along What defense do i have against your intuition And her extrasense?
What defense do i have against your out of body expierience?

What a witch i am What a witch i am What a witch i am What a witch i am

Who's side are you on anyway? Oh oh oh oh

I had a dream about your and your princess the other day

You and her were laughin because i was dead.
