Do I belong here (4x)

Looking at you but you pretend that you didn't see me.
Crying for help but you turned your back on me!
Now I'm wishing it could be the way that it was
And I strain on my soul
Just to break myself from your hold!

(Chorus)

Why all these broken kisses (4x)

You never knew just how much it destroyed me.
You never knew just how much your spells could hurt.
You never knew just how much I could love you!
You never knew how much I could love you!
You never knew!

(Chorus)

How could I've known that your love was never there
How could I've known that everything to me to you had meant nothing
That everything to you had meant nothing.
How could everything to you mean nothing

(Woah!) Sex, drugs, and rock and roll! Yeah baby!
(Woah!) 666! Yeah baby!
(Woah!) Sex, drugs, and rock and roll! Yeah baby!
(Woah!) Yeah baby! Yes!

(Chorus)
