(Robert Å...hlin/Kristina Johnsson)

In my dreams I still feel you
You are right by my side
And though I'm asleep
There's no way to keep the distance

You're the air that I'm breathing
You're the breeze on my skin
You are everywhere
Whispers in the air around me

Out of my mind
Could we rewind
Can you come and touch me one more time
There's not a thing I wouldn't do

I would give a million stars if you would take my hand
All the colors of the rainbow for a single smile
I could travel 'round the sun to reach your heart and then
I would walk across the moon to have your love again

Soul and body, I'm all yours
You were always the one
And although I'm scared
I'd return again to your arms

I'm losing ground
My head's spinning 'round
Say that you'll leave what you have found
There ain't a thing I wouldn't do

I would give a million stars if you would take my hand
All the colors of the rainbow for a single smile
I could travel 'round the sun to reach your heart and
then
I would walk across the moon to have your love again

Hear me I'm calling
Catch me I'm falling

Hear me I'm calling
Before I fall

I would give a million stars if you would take my hand
All the colors of the rainbow for a single smile
I could travel 'round the sun to reach your heart and
then
I would walk across the moon to have your love again
