I wanna be close
So I can see my own reflection
Looking back from your eyes

I can't believe
You fell out of the blue right down on me
Now I'm ready to crash and burn

We got a different gravity
Surrounding you and me
We have found the key
That's gonna make us fly tonight
A gravity
Surrounding you and me
We're all that we can be
Come on let us fly tonight

I feel all right
When I lay my secrets in your hands
You will never let me down
Nothing here can keep us down
We'll raise our heads above this town
And fly like rockets

We got a different gravity
Surrounding you and me
We have found the key
That's gonna make us fly tonight
A gravity
Surrounding you and me
We're all that we can be
Come on let us fly tonight

The sun rises higher than before
As I'm with the one I adore
Let's steal the moment and run away

We've got something they can't touch
We've got something they can't take away

We got a different gravity
Surrounding you and me
We have found the key
That's gonna make us fly tonight
A gravity
Surrounding you and me
We're all that we can be
Come on let us fly tonight
