The cooling breeze
Runs through my hair makes me think of you
You're always there
All around me, everywhere
It's in the air
Your every kiss like a summer's day
I think you know
You take my breath away and
So I surrender to the power of your love
I fall back and let you take me there
To the place that I've been dreaming of

I surrender when you look into my eyes
I give in and let you take me there
To a place where there's just too much

Yeah, Yeah, Yeah

It's in your eyes
It's in your touch
Every word you speak
My wish comes true every second I'm with you
So easily
You stole my heart
I was yours to keep
I think you know
You take my breath away and

So I surrender to the power of your love
I fall back and let you take me there
To the place that I've been dreaming of
I surrender when you look into my eyes
I give in and let you take me there
To a place where there's just too much

Holding onto something heaven sent
I don't ever want this love to end
I don't ever want this love to end
Holding on something heaven sent
I don't ever want this love to end
I don't ever want this love to end

I surrender to the power of your love
(I surrender To the power of your love)
I fall back and let you take me there
To the place that I've been dreaming of
(Surrender)
I surrender when you look into my eyes
(When you look into my eyes)
I give in and let you take me there
To a place where there's just too much
(Surrender)

Holding onto something heaven sent
(I surrender to the power of your love)
I don't ever want this love to end
(I fall back and let you take me there)
I don't ever want this love to end
(To the place that I've been dreaming of)
Holding on something heaven sent
(I surrender when you look into my eyes)
I don't ever want this love to end
(I give in and let you take me there)
I don't ever want this love to end
(To a place where there's just too much)
