Two birds taking flight
One rest, the other guides them home
They love but they don't know

Two bricks lay in line
Weathered but the red and white still show
They love but they don't know

One can make a heart ache
While another makes it strong
Settle up before it's gone

Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
'Cause our time is made of gold
And we can spend it all night if we spend it right
Let's take as much as we can hold
Now I'm reaching out an empty hand
Hold it there until it's full
Make it last
'Cause this is all we have
A love as good as gold

Some days turn us down
Shaking up all our doubting bones
We love but we don't know

Some nights keep us up
The turn around is always touch and go
We love but we don't know

One voice make a heart race
While the others just make noise
Settle up before it's gone

Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
'Cause our time is made of gold
And we can spend it all night if we spend it right
Let's take as much as we can hold
Now I'm reaching out an empty hand

Hold it there until it's full
Make it last
'Cause this is all we have
A love as good as gold
A love as good as gold

So tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
'Cause our time is made of gold
And we can spend it all night if we spend it right
Let's take as much as we can hold
Now I'm reaching out an empty hand
Hold it there until it's full
Make it last

Oh tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
'Cause our time is made of gold
And we can spend it all night if we spend it right
Let's take as much as we can hold
Now I'm reaching out an empty hand
Hold it there until it's full
Make it last
'Cause this is all we have
A love as good as gold
