I work hard every day, I, m sick of all the games I, m breaking away
Well I don't like this no, when I have nothing at all, with every thing no
With every thing you work for, with every thing no, when every thing is nothing oh

I'm wasting all my time, I fucked up in this lie I'm breaking(I'm breaking away)

Well I don't like this no, when I have nothing at all With every thing no, when every thing you worked for,
with every thing no,
When every thing is nothing oh
Well I don't like it here, it's too late to stay, save me from this hell
I live it every day,

Because I don't like it here, and it's to late to stay, save me from this hell
Or am I just a slave

You break me down to lift your self and push on my belief and then you rearrange what you say and leaves me here again
