We rise up from the tomb
bloody and covered with worms today is the day of doom
a hunger for flesh is the cure rise up from the ground
an army ready to kill zombified nations of blood have taken over the the earth... has died a shallow giant grave a blood soaked skull a terror greater than death tear away the skin
a skeleton exposed to be broken in the ground, but soon to live the maggot infested dead awaken from their rest to kill again we kill again to satisfy our hunger will always be blood death is now on its way, waiting to end today sludge of the human waste, you will have died in vane a plague has been let loose sickness within us grows

doomsday, doomsday, doomsday
death is now on it's way, waiting to end today

have taken over the the earth
