Premonition, I dreamt of horror
Knowledge of the future
I've broken through the barrier

Transcend beyond my body
The spirits call to me
These nightmares are reality

Reflections, of another life
Reflections, in my eyes

Visions, victims
I've seen each death
Murder, torture
I know the next, dead

Through shadows of the mind
Reaching for the light
I've seen them die
When I close my eyes

Reflections, of another life
Reflections, in my eyes

I've seen the dead
Tomorrow's victim
I've told of places I've seen
But have never been

Terror, fear
As each life ends
Horror, dread
I've seen the next, dead
