I can't take it anymore
Got me hiding from myself
They put me away long ago
Another P.O.W.

Lost my mind, now twenty years
Let it slip, not too far gone
Can't go on another day
Freedom in this day and age

It's all just a fucking game
I'm not the criminal
I'm not the one to hate
Thrown away into the void
A victim of the paranoid

Victim of the paranoid
A victim of the paranoid
Victim of the paranoid
A victim of the paranoid

I feel like I'm living in another dimension
Misled minds keep on spreading confusion
Kill, kill, kill, kill, I want to kill them all
And put an end to their fascist laws
Open, open your mind

Victim of the paranoid
A victim of the paranoid
Victim of the paranoid
A victim of the paranoid

It seems like such a waste of time
We all can't be this fucking blind
As I sit and wonder why
One more mind is locked inside
