How do you do it girl
All those inhibitions
Girl just run away from them

Open the doors
And Find out who you really are
Just trust all your wishing stars

You say I'll just lie awake and wait
Time will heal the pain
You fade away the days
At a fast pace
Oh but please slow down
The chase

Where will you run to
When it will follow you
Wherever you lead your life to

Ocean's deepening
In the midst of all your problems
That you've got yourself wrapped in

You say I'll just lie awake and wait
Time will heal the pain
And fade away the days
At a fast pace
Oh but please slow down
The chase

You say I'll just lie awake and wait
Time will heal the pain
And fade away the days
At a fast pace
Oh but please slow down
Please slow down
The chase
