Come here baby, look deep into my eyes
'cause i been thinking' about the way you treat me

I know there's something, something that you try to hide
It's time to talk about it tell me why oh why

Am I just another girl. Past in your memory?
are you just another page im my diary?

(Chorus)

This, this is who I am you got to understand
Don't waste my time cause I ain't changing

This, this is who I am if you were half the man
You would just let me be the way I am...

This is who I am

Now listen baby, I hope you feel the same Cause I am tired of this game we're playing

It's time to let me know which way you gotta go boy
Do you believe in all the things you're saying?

Am I just another girl. Past in your memory
Are you just another page in my diary?

(Chorus)

This is who I am - oho
This is who I am

(Chorus)

This is who I am
