Wicked, wicked from the mouth I spout
Oh Lord, don't let these thoughts come out
My knees they knock and my feet they fail
The thoughts I think I see your face turn pale

Take my hand an' you will see
The one in the wayback
Take my hand an' you will be
The one atop the swayback

Your word so pretty, yes I love that sound
My heart like a hammer does pound
My breath it leaves me to speak it
My legs they tremble to the ground

Take my hand an' you will see
The one in the wayback
Take my hand an' you will be
The one atop the swayback

Alright, oh my goodness

Wish I was a Bible thumpin' fool
Yeah, from the old school
A mind as narrow as the road I walk
Always upright when I talk but

Take my hand an' you will see
The one in the wayback
Take my hand an' you will be
The one atop the swayback

I'm alright now
[Incomprehensible]
No matter what
[Incomprehensible]
