There's a cold wind blowing, but it's missing me

'Cause I'm so warm in your company

So don't you worry girl, don't you cry

You really can smile so let me help you try.

You say there's nothing left

But I would disagree

Your life has come adrift

Anchor yourself to me.

There's a cold wind blowing, but it's missing me

'Cause I'm so warm in your company

So don't you worry girl, don't you cry

You really can smile so let me help you try.
