Here's Bill Giles with the weather

Good old Bill

Everything's changed

The new technology

More accurate

Sophisticated presentation

New jargon.

Celsius for Centigrade

Nice captions

Everything's moving

Look at the clouds move

Look at the rain move

We all know where we stand

As far as the weather's concerned

Slick

New technology.

Bill's got it right

Well almost

Today amidst this modern paraphernalia

He points at the moving pictures

And says

"There's some drizzly stuff over there"

I thought I heard his computer hiccup

Good old Bill.
