Interplanetary Pit Stop

I've seen it all so electric No feeling really can compare this

(spoken) Sixty billion years and sixty more to go

That rig rides the lightning (spoken) Breaker breaker one-nine here we fucking go

That rig stops for nothing

I could've seen the sun but waited for some rainy day But I'm movin' not to lose it and I'm usin' everything I kill a ??? language and of things I would say I hear 'em screamin in the distance they need to live
