Come on take a ride with us on crystal ships we'll check out the system

We'll ride our high to other sides and not deny we've got and addiction

To these rhythms

Stars are burning, Haley's screaming, drink some more cause we're just beginning

To make the night and break through spaces we can always keep ourselves spinning

Spinning

You know you wanna take a ride

Don't you wanna come along

We're going to the other side

I knew that you would come along

I'm high all the time

Satellites will light the night and show the way to steer through the vision

Hold the wheel I'll watch the course that lights the way to burn what you need

What you want

Well I believe I can see the truth ahead explodes like a new star

And we're reeling

Towards a supernova tractor beams that pull us in get what we need

What we want

You know you wanna take a ride

Don't you wanna come along

We're going to the other side

So you better hold on

You better hold on

So you better hold on

Y'all come on alive for the ride medicine men track in the sand of the planet where we'll land safe as houses

Burn the peace pipe you know we just might raise the flame of the funk when we douse this Fire of desire in the gyre we're movin' higher we've got it here just right
And without a sound we can get down take the groove into the night

New trip
