Memories...

Sight !
Unknown places
Unknown faces, unfamiliar room
Are you the one I've been waiting for so long
Oh I miss you
The lights turned out
You shine in the dark
Lines began to blur
You walked across the void
Eternal movement and unbroken silence

Holding your hands
Streaming in air
I'm high in your arms
Your fragrance
Truth fading away from us
I close my eyes
Breathing your words
Gently whispering
Promises of new ways
Your sweetest glance
And rose-like pupils
Venus, you took my heart

Can't go away just from the scene
Each day of my life
Calling your name again and again
Do you hear my scream

Will I ever see you again
You were so gorgeous
Are you only a dream's memory
Am I awoken or am I asleep
Can you tell me
Are you only a dream's memory

Your lips - Your hands - Your nape
Were suddenly mine
My soul - My heart - My joy

Made you even truer

Can't go away just from the scene
Each day of my life
Calling your name again and again
Do you see my tears

Will I ever see you again
You were so gorgeous
Are you only a dream's memory
You've disappeared
I am lost just between true and false
Could you help me
Are you only a dream's memory

As the sky turned pink
You disappeared just in a blink
Then I hit
The dirty ground
The dirty world
Slowly opening my lids
It became clearer
My daily nights
My daily dreams
My daily disgust
