Laughing like we're crazy
Nothing mattered
Nothing fazed me
We were younger then
So much younger then
Everything seems rotten through
The eyes of the forgotten
And we were dumber then
So much dumber then

Well have I judged a book by how its bound
Am I lost or am I found
And are you with me
Are you with me now
Come back from the dead
You've been inside your head for too long
Are you with me now
Find the places that scare you
Come on I dare you
Are you with me
Are you with me

The years they took their toll
And all the things I can't control
Come back to haunt me now
Almost taunt me now
Whats left to be afraid of
We found out what we are made of
And we've come this far
We both have the scars

Have I ever judged a book by how its bound

Am I lost or am I found
And are you with me
Are you with me now
Come back from the dead
You've been inside your head for too long
Are you with me now
Find the places that scare you
Come on I dare you
Are you with me

Are you with me
Are you with me
Are you with me

Well have I judged a book by how its bound
Am I lost or am I found
And are you with me
Come back from the dead
You've been inside your head for too long
Find the places that scare you
Are you with me now
Come back from the dead
You've been inside your head for too long
Are you with me now
Find the places that scare you
Come on I dare you
OH
Come on I dare you
Are you with me
Are you with me
Are you with me
Are you with me
Are you with me
Are you with me
